MASS INTENTIONS

Helen & Silvio Capone..... Saturday @ 4PM

GRAND ANNUAL 2014

This is “Commitment Weekend”

Our goal this year is to match last year’s success by raising $70,000 or more through the Grand Annual. Achieving this goal will allow us to secure our parish finances as well as to allow us to continue our important ministries.

Please consider a gift of $300 or more. Some have the ability to do much more and some less. We ask only that you give to the best of your ability. If you did not bring your pledge card to Mass with you this weekend, please bring it next week or mail it directly to the parish office. Additional forms are available at the entrance to the church. We truly appreciate any assistance you can give and are counting on the many, who are able, to support this appeal. Thank you.

A NEW BULLETIN IS COMING

At the beginning of November, you will notice a big, new colorful change to this parish bulletin. Each weekend, starting on November 8, you will receive a 12-page bulletin with at least 4 color pages containing the latest news and information not just about your parish, but also about the other two parishes in the Matthew 13 Collaborative and Blessed Sacrament School. With a professional, magazine-style layout, we hope that you find the new bulletin to be even better than the great bulletins you've experienced here already. (Incidentally, we want to thank our three parish bulletin editors who have so ably maintained this vital communications link for so many years. They have done a wonderful job.)

With the change to the format, we also have a new email address for submitting your bulletin announcements. Starting on Tuesday, October 28, please send all items to be considered for the bulletin to bulletin@matt13catholic.org. Until then please keep submitting your items the way you already have.

A MASS AND HEALING SERVICE

Mass & Healing Services will be held at Blessed Sacrament Church on October 26 (2pm), November 23 (1:30-5pm) and December 28 (2pm) with Fr. Joseph McDermott. All those who have physical illnesses, as well as those burdened, or suffering emotionally, mentally, spiritually, psychologically, or financially are invited to come and pray with us.

FREE BOOK SIGNING WITH FR. ROBERT REED OF CATHOLIC TV!

Here is a wonderful opportunity to meet and talk with Fr. Robert Reed of Catholic TV as he holds a Book Signing of his latest title “Rediscover the Saints” on Saturday, November 1 from 1-2 PM at Pauline Books and Media, 885 Providence Highway, Dedham. For more information, please call 781-326-5385.

Where Does My Offertory Money End Up?

By Marty Murphy, Director of Finance & Operations

One of the benefits of the new collaborative Mass schedule is that you can always find a Sunday Mass that begins within the next hour or so. Running late no longer means missing Mass.

One question that has come up was what happens if someone goes to a Mass at one of the other parishes in the collaborative, but uses an offertory envelope from their home parish: "Where does my money end up?" While many local parishes have always been kind enough to forward along offertory that was donated in another parish's envelope, we are in the process of updating our offertory envelopes at the three parishes in the collaborative to more clearly indicate where the money should end up.

Over the next couple of months you will notice that your offertory envelopes are color coded with a border. Maroon is for Blessed Sacrament, blue for Our Lady of Sorrows and green for St. Mary. This border will help ensure that your contribution ends up at your home parish, regardless of where you attended Mass in the collaborative that particular week.

Please remember that you must use an envelope from your home parish for your contribution to be allocated to your account and to appear on your yearly contributions statement. Please be sure to write your check out to the parish for which you have envelopes. If you write out a check for one parish and use a different parish's envelope, we will give you a call to confirm your intentions.

Thanks also are due to the ushers and money counters who volunteer many hours of their time in the parishes to ensure the safe handling and processing of the offertory.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me directly at mmurphy@matt13catholic.org
